SENIOR CLASS SONG

In the years to come we never will forget The standards you've set for us here, And the class of '60 carries forward yet A torch ever burning through the years.

The memories . . . the friendships true We'll treasure our whole lives through.
 Your loyal daughters ever we will be As onward we march behind the blue.

Notice.

Those persons who feel favourably disposed towards the establishment of a Female High School in the South Parish of Andover, are requested to meet at Mr. James Locke's on Tuesday evening next, the 19th inst. at six o'clock, P. M.

ANDOVER, FEB. 15, 1828

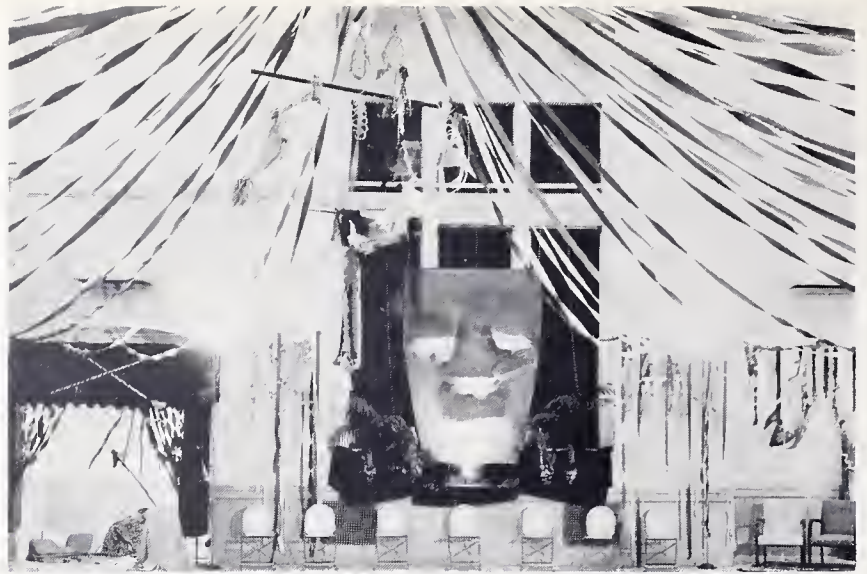

Signs like this were posted in prominent places around Andover to urge the founding of an academy. This developed into Abbot Academy.

in D.S. room

nowhere, especially at the right time making a mess, at the dentist. . . . unchaperoned
with Piper Cub

spazzing and being gullible in the red plaid dress sleeping with her animals doing fanny exercises

looking out the window where she's not supposed to be

"Running Bear"

sitting on the radiator

AND STILL HOPES TO

snow worm

attend Brooks be a non-existent weenie do many, many many things go around the world get to breakfast on time, read Freud and be an intellect ascertain the answers attend P.A. summer school catch her plane?

see Abbot's social life improve forget food

bring a cigar to smoking hour

Doesn't everybody?

look 21, have a neat room make Fidelio, clear out lower classmen during study hall become a 40, become a Boston beatnik join the P.S. league drown out Joice's uke reign supreme as the fat queen find a truthful "red Indian"

be wicked conduct a successful diet sit on the "right" side in church win the race to vespers squish her icecream to make spiral nebula

ABBOT HALL

The original and for a long time the only school building, was built facing School Street in 1829. It was named in honor of Madame Sarah Abbot, whose generous gift made its construction possible.
